Dear Doctor: We-have within our office, a large-number of-members who wish to signify their pleasure for-the influence you have-had over-them during-the several-years you-were with-them. You-are generally in Delhi during November, and so we-are happy to-have-your talk to-the members on-the principles of-liberty and-its advantages when you-come. We all wish to see-you in-November. Yours-truly.

Mr. Srinivas, Dear Sir: We-enclose-cheque for Rs.50, the balance due for the dresses, as per your invoice of 18th July. We-are-pleased to say these dresses are selling easily, and are pronounced by our customers rare value for money. Everyone talks of the excellence of the designs; but strange to say, most of the buyers evince a preference for-the dark ones. They seem to-have a better appearance than others; but this, we suppose, is mere fancy. We-shall-be-pleased to see your Mr. Ramaraju on the 25th of August, as advised. Please acknowledge receipt of-cheque by-return post and oblige. Yours-truly
